

WOMEN IN HEALTHCARE LEADERSHIP: A Multi-Generational Discussion

Melinda Hancock, MBA, Chief
Administrative and Financial Officer,
VCU Health System

Roberta Tinch, MHA, Chief Operating Officer, Johnston-Willis Hospital

Stephanie Lim, MHA, AVP of Strategy and Development, HCA Capital
Division

Terri Ripley, MSIT, Chief Information
Officer, OrthoVirginia

Moderator - Carolyn Hunter, MSHA,
VP of Operations, Chippenham
Hospital

July 25, 2019 – 5:30 to 8pm
Johnston-Willis Hospital Stalker Auditorium

Join us as this panel discusses the nuts and bolts of career planning from the perspective of women in healthcare. It will explore steps an individual should take within her organization and in the surrounding community to reach the next level in her career.

We highly encourage men to attend this event in the support and engagement of female leaders within your organization.

